Setting up of a Human Rights Commission

90.* DR. NARREDDY THULASI REDDY :
SHRI J. S. RAJU :

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to appoint a Human Rights Commission;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof;

(c) whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to keep the armed forces outside the purview of the proposed Human Rights Commission; and

(d) whether the proposed Commission would also include representatives of non Governmental Organizations ?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. B. CHAVAN) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) A Chief Ministers' Conference was organised to consider various issues relating to Human Rights including the setting up a National Human Rights Commission. The Conference Welcomed the proposal and decided that a Committee of concerned Central Ministers and five Chief Ministers be set up to prepare the draft frame work of the legislation for the proposed Commission. A nine member Committee set up for the purpose under the Chairmanship of Home Minister met on 12-10-92 and decided that views of a wide cross section of society be ascertained by organising Seminars in different parts of the country. Four such Seminars have since been organised. One more seminar is likely to be organised shortly.

The matter will be further discussed in a meeting of Chief Secretaries and Director Generals of Police of major States/ Union Territories.

In the light of views expressed in the seminars and in other fora, various issues pertaining to the composition of the Commission, its terms of reference and powers etc. will be considered by the Committee under the Chairmanship of Home Minister and final proposals will be formulated.
